

THE HERALD.

JNO. P. BARRETT, EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23d, 1879.

Democratic State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR,
DR. LUKE P. BLACKBURN,
Of Jefferson County.

FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,
HON. JAS. E. CANTRILL,
Of Scott County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
P. W. HARDIN,
Of Mercer County.

FOR AUDITOR,
GEN. FAYETTE HEWITT,
Of Hardin County.

FOR TREASURER,
HON. J. W. TATE,
Of Franklin County.

FOR SCPT. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
PROF. J. DESHA PICKETT,
Of Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE,
CAPT. RALPH SHELDON,
Of Nelson County.

County Ticket.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE,
HON. R. P. HOCKER.

GENERAL WM. F. BARRY, Colonel of
the Second Artillery in command at Fort McHenry, died last Friday.

MEDATORS "Retrenchment and reform"'
lies in voting Door Keepers eight dollars
per day for doing nothing.

LET not your party prejudice or zeal
so far control you as to forget to vote
for a new constitution. It is endorsed
by all parties, and is an actual need;
every one failing to vote for it is
counted against it.

Poor men, remember that Dr. Meador voted for the whipping post bill for
your benefit. His own organ, the News,
calls it an act of barbarity. If you want the whipping post law, vote for Meador, if not, vote for Hocker.

WORKING men of Ohio county, if you
favor judges' salaries to remain at $3,000,
not reduced to $2,000, vote for Dr. Meador,
for he voted against the reduction of
the salary of the Judge of the Common Please Court, established in Fayette and
other counties from $3,000 to $2,000.

REMEMBER, that Dr. J. W. Mileage
Meador voted against a resolution reducing Judges salaries from $3,000 to $2,000, and yet claims to be in favor of retrenchment and reform. Oh! don't these two things consist well?

EX-SENATOR RAMSEY, of Minnesota,
has been tendered the position of Secretary of War, vice McCrory, resigned.
He has of course accepted, as offices of
profit are not generally refused by the
stalwart politician.

G. W. BEAUCHAMP, of Sedgwick,
Kansas, writes us July 17th, as follows:

Crops are splendid in this Harvey coun-
try. We have an abundance of rain,
business of all kinds good. Emigration
from Kentucky to this section heavy.

EIGHT dollars a day is the value set
upon the services of a Door Keeper of the House of Representatives by Dr.
James W. Mileage Meador, and yet
the poor laborer who listens to him
talk about retrenchment and reformat-
ors only 75 cents to a $1.00 a day.

By reference to the card from Hon. J.
A. McKenzie, it will be seen that a Board
of Examiners will meet in Greenville
on the 29th day of August to examine all applicants for the position in the Naval Academy to be filled by appointment by him. If any of our young men desire to compete now is the time.

WHEN Dr. Meador was in the Legislature, he failed to vote for cutting down
the pay of the Sergeant-at-arms from $8.00 to $5.00 per day. When Mr.
Hocker was there, he voted for the cutting down of the pay of these officers from $8.00 to $6.00. Look at the two House Journals, and see the truth of this.

THE Buford trial has about come to a close, and is now probably in the hands
of the jury. The last speech in his defense was made by Mr. Curtis Monday.
The Commonwealth's Attorney made his argument yesterday, and the result of the trial will soon be made known to the public.

THE Louisville Commercial office fixtures, &c., were sold at auction on the 15th inst. General Eli H. Murray,
attorney for the old stockholders, bid it
in at $1,000. A new company will be formed and arrangements made to continue the publication of the paper. The programme will be given to the public
in a few days.

DO NOT fail to read the speech of Jesse
E. Fogle, printed on our first page. It needs no compliments from us for it speaks for itself. While not as brilliant
as the speech of a Knott or McKenzie,
yet it is replete with sound logic and bristles with facts and incidents in our political history, well known to all and
cannot be refuted.

MEADOR, Bennett and Hocker are not going to enjoy all the fun. We now have a three-cornered race for Town
Marshal: J. T. Igleshart, Thomas D.
Davis and I the present incumbent, Robt.
C. Hardwick. The voters of the Town
have a sufficient time to canvass the
claims and qualifications of the aspirants,
to this small, but yet important
officer to us. Weigh them, and vote for the man you deem best qualified to fill
the office properly.

Yesterday's Courier-Journal brings still gloomy reports from poor plague stricken Memphis. The fever is spreading all over the city, and persons dying daily. It is yet confined to Memphis but will, in all probability, spread over the whole South before Jack Frost stops its career.

REMEMBER on the mileage question,
that Meador after having his attention called to his overdraw, refunded only nine dollars out of twenty-seven dollars and thirty cents. Remember that while Hocker lives much farther from Frankfort than Dr. Meador, he yet drew less than the Doctor did; and remembering these two facts, how can you denounce Hocker, and vindicate Meador as the News is trying to do.

The annual meeting of the State Teachers' Association will be held in Danville, commencing August 12th and continuing 4 days. The railroads will give reduced rates of travel, and the citizens of Danville have generously proposed to entertain the delegates that attend.
The teachers of every county
should be represented by delegates.

It turns right round and tries to create the impression that Mr. Hocker is unfriendly to the foreign-born citizens, notwithstanding its denunciation of him
for voting for one.

A Man's Brains Blown Out.

One day last week, in McLean county,
about 8 miles west of Calhoun, Silas Abner shot Milton Tanner (who was generally called "Mit") with a shotgun, killing him instantly. The trouble originated, as we learned it, about last winter Dan Abner ran off with a young girl of the neighborhood to be married; "Mit" Tanner accompanied him
and aided him with his team, money, &c.
After returning, Dan Abner was scarce of money and did not pay "Mit" up. Abner was out hunting one day and met Tanner, who dunned
him for the money and raised a row about it, and finally took the gun from Abner and knocked him down with it.
For this he was indicted last January.
Last week Tanner and Dan and Silas
Abner, his brother, met at a wheat threshing in the neighborhood. Tanner raised a row with the Abners and Silas Abner, his wife, and was shot by Silas Abner, blowing his brains out, killing him imstantly. Tanner has been inclined to row and fight, and has been in several difficulties. These are the facts as we have heard them.

THE WHIPPING POST.

The News Caught Blowing Hot and Cold Again.

Only two weeks ago the News editorally denounced the whipping post law
as an act of barbarity, but it nevertheless is doing all it can to re-elect the man who voted for it in the last Legislature.

Mr. Hocker's Record.

Mr. Hocker has a clear, good record as Representative, and did all he could for the benefit of his constituents.

He introduced a resolution requiring the Committee on Ways and Means to bring in a bill reducing the fees and salaries of all officers of this Commonwealth.

From Dr. Meador's residence to Spring Lick is not exceeding 10 miles; from Spring Lick to Louisville is 82 miles, and from Louisville to Frankfort 65 miles, total, 157 miles. Twice this is 314 miles.
He drew for 400, making a draw of 86
miles too much.

When he was caught at it, he refunded $900. He overdraw $12,900, refunded $900, leaving $3,900 of the State's money in his pocket. This, mind you, was his second time as Representative, and does it not seem reasonable that a man of good common sense could have learned the distance by the time he had gone back the second time as Representative.
When he was Representative in 1873-4, he claimed and collected for 410 miles, which is 96 miles further than the road can be stretched out. Now if he had aimed to get a fair mileage does it not seem that he could have come nearer than 96 miles in guessing the distance?
The amount over drawn the first session fourteen dollars and forty cents, and amount overdrawn last session, twelve dollars and ninety cents; total, twenty-seven dollars and thirty cents. Credit by amount refunded after he got caught running his hand too deep in the treasury, nine dollars. Balance in his hands of the people's money, eighteen dollars and thirty cents. When his attention was called to the fact in the second session
that he had drawn more than right, while refunding, why did he not refund
the whole amount overdrawn that session, and why did he not refund the amount overdrawn the first session.

These are all facts shown by the Auditor's Report. Mr. Hocker drew fifty-four dollars and forty cents mileage when he went. He lives 2 miles from Beaver Dam. From Beaver Dam to Louisville is 108 miles, from Louisville
to Frankfort 65 miles; total, 175 miles; doubled, 350 miles. At 15 cents per mile, fifty-two dollars and fifty cents.
Overdrawn six dollars and ninety cents.
This is wholly false, and known to be by all who know anything about it, as the record shows that Mr. Hocker had Ohio county exempted from the provisions of said law. In other sections it is reported that he had enacted a dog
law. This is also false, as the record shows that Mr. Hocker had Ohio county
excluded from this law, and to-day there is no dog law in existence before he represented the county. He is also held responsible for the fish law, but the House Journal shows that he voted against the law. We do not know what he did with Mr. Hocker in political principles
as he opposed his election to the Legislature,
but it is mean, low-down, cowardly meanness, to try to beat a man by misrepresenting the facts or circulating falsehoods just before the election.

The awful plague—the awful scourge
—after a day or so of no new cases,
broke out again last Friday in Memphis,
and there are now over 100 cases. There were up to Sunday night 16 deaths—the first occurring on the 9th inst. Every one who could get away has gone. The provisions in the city are about exhausted. The trains and boats are fast
being stopped by quarantine measures,
and thousands of poor people in the city,
too poor to get away, are left to die of
the awful plague, or if they miss it, starvation stalks them in the face. Oh,
what a sad picture poor Memphis presents. The business of the city is totally ruined for months to come.

The Yellow Death.

The fearful plague—the awful scourge
—after a day or so of no new cases,
broke out again last Friday in Memphis,
and there are now over 100 cases. There were up to Sunday night 16 deaths—the first occurring on the 9th inst. Every one who could get away has gone. The
provisions in the city are about exhausted. The trains and boats are fast
being stopped by quarantine measures,
and thousands of poor people in the city,
too poor to get away, are left to die of
the awful plague, or if they miss it, starvation stalks them in the face. Oh,
what a sad picture poor Memphis presents. The business of the city is totally
ruined for months to come.

MEADOR, Bennett and Hocker are not
going to enjoy all the fun. We now
have a three-cornered race for Town
Marshal: J. T. Igleshart, Thomas D.
Davis and I the present incumbent, Robt.
C. Hardwick. The voters of the Town
have a sufficient time to canvass the
claims and qualifications of the aspirants,
to this small, but yet important
officer to us. Weigh them, and vote for
the man you deem best qualified to fill
the office properly.

Another Falsehood clinched.

It has been whispered around recently in the region of the Coal Mines, that Mr. Hocker while in Legislature tried to procure the passage of a law placing the bars of coal-screws 4 inches apart. This is a base mean lie, made out of the whole cloth, concocted for the wicked villainous purpose of influencing the miners just on the eve of the election. There was no such law proposed or before the Legislature of which he was a member. He did however endeavor to secure the passage of a law requiring the proprietors of coal mines to have their mines more thoroughly ventilated. This was for the benefit and in the interest of the mining citizen.

Blows Hot or Cold.

The Ohio County News blows hot or cold, just to suit the occasion. It has villified and abused Mr. Hocker for his vote for Hon. James B. Beck for United States Senator. Mr. Beck is a foreign citizen.

FOR SCPT. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
PROF. J. DESHA PICKETT,
Of Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE,
CAPT. RALPH SHELDON,
Of Nelson County.

County Ticket.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE,
HON. R. P. HOCKER.

GENERAL WM. F. BARRY, Colonel of
the Second Artillery in command at Fort McHenry, died last Friday.

MEDATORS "Retrenchment and reform"'
lies in voting Door Keepers eight dollars
per day for doing nothing.

LET not your party prejudice or zeal
so far control you as to forget to vote
for a new constitution. It is endorsed
by all parties, and is an actual need;
every one failing to vote for it is
counted against it.

Poor men, remember that Dr. Meador
voted for the whipping post bill for
your benefit. His own organ, the News,
calls it an act of barbarity. If you want the whipping post law, vote for
Meador, if not, vote for Hocker.

WORKING men of Ohio county, if you
favor judges' salaries to remain at $3,000,
not reduced to $2,000, vote for Dr. Meador,
for he voted against the reduction of
the salary of the Judge of the Common
Please Court, established in Fayette and
other counties from $3,000 to $2,000.

REMEMBER, that Dr. J. W. Mileage
Meador voted against a resolution reducing Judges salaries from $3,000 to $2,000, and yet claims to be in favor of retrenchment and reform. Oh! don't
these two things consist well?

EX-SENATOR RAMSEY, of Minnesota,
has been tendered the position of Secretary of War, vice McCrory, resigned.
He has of course accepted, as offices of
profit are not generally refused by the
stalwart politician.

G. W. BEAUCHAMP, of Sedgwick,
Kansas, writes us July 17th, as follows:

Crops are splendid in this Harvey coun-
try. We have an abundance of rain,
business of all kinds good. Emigration
from Kentucky to this section heavy.

EIGHT dollars a day is the value set
upon the services of a Door Keeper of
the House of Representatives by Dr.
James W. Mileage Meador, and yet
the poor laborer who listens to him
talk about retrenchment and reformat-
ors only 75 cents to a $1.00 a day.

By reference to the card from Hon. J.
A. McKenzie, it will be seen that a Board
of Examiners will meet in Greenville
on the 29th day of August to examine
all applicants for the position in the Naval Academy to be filled by appointment by him. If any of our young
men desire to compete now is the time.

THE Buford trial has about come to a
close, and is now probably in the hands
of the jury. The last speech in his defense was made by Mr. Curtis Monday.
The Commonwealth's Attorney made his
argument yesterday, and the result of
the trial will soon be made known to the
public.

DO NOT fail to read the speech of Jesse
E. Fogle, printed on our first page. It
needs no compliments from us for it
speaks for itself. While not as brilliant
as the speech of a Knott or McKenzie,
yet it is replete with sound logic and
bristles with facts and incidents in our
political history, well known to all and
cannot be refuted.

MEADOR, Bennett and Hocker are not
going to enjoy all the fun. We now
have a three-cornered race for Town
Marshal: J. T. Igleshart, Thomas D.
Davis and I the present incumbent, Robt.
C. Hardwick. The voters of the Town
have a sufficient time to canvass the
claims and qualifications of the aspirants,
to this small, but yet important
officer to us. Weigh them, and vote for
the man you deem best qualified to fill
the office properly.

THE Louisville Commercial office fix-
tures, &c., were sold at auction on
the 15th inst. General Eli H. Murray,
attorney for the old stockholders, bid it
in at $1,000. A new company will be formed and arrangements made to continue the publication of the paper. The
programme will be given to the public
in a few days.

Do not fail to read the speech of Jesse
E. Fogle, printed on our first page. It
needs no compliments from us for it
speaks for itself. While not as brilliant
as the speech of a Knott or McKenzie,
yet it is replete with sound logic and
bristles with facts and incidents in our
political history, well known to all and
cannot be refuted.

MEADOR, Bennett and Hocker are not
going to enjoy all the fun. We now
have a three-cornered race for Town
Marshal: J. T. Igleshart, Thomas D.
Davis and I the present incumbent, Robt.
C. Hardwick. The voters of the Town
have a sufficient time to canvass the
claims and qualifications of the aspirants,
to this small, but yet important
officer to us. Weigh them, and vote for
the man you deem best qualified to fill
the office properly.

THE Buford trial has about come to a
close, and is now probably in the hands
of the jury. The last speech in his defense was made by Mr. Curtis Monday.
The Commonwealth's Attorney made his
argument yesterday, and the result of
the trial will soon be made known to the
public.

DO NOT fail to read the speech of Jesse
E. Fogle, printed on our first page. It
needs no compliments from us for it
speaks for itself. While not as brilliant
as the speech of a Knott or McKenzie,
yet it is replete with sound logic and
bristles with facts and incidents in our
political history, well known to all and
cannot be refuted

THE HERALD.

LYCURGUS BARRETT, - LOCAL EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23d, 1879.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce J. T. Iglesias as a candidate for Marshal of the town of Hartford. Election, August, 1879.

We are authorized to announce Robert C. Hardwick as a candidate for Marshal of Hartford. Election, 1st Monday in August.

We are authorized to announce Thomas D. Davis a candidate for Marshal of the Town of Hartford. Election, August 4th 1879.

—Archery at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Claw Jackson's Sweet Navy Tobacco.

—Lace Bunting at less than former prices at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Born.—To the wife of John M. Klein July 15, 1879, a son, John Lawton.

—Just think of it—Ladies' Ulsters for only $1.85 at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Golden bee hives made to order, at D. F. TRACY'S.

—Buy your jeans before the advance, Anderson's Bazaar has an immense stock.

—Any kind of repairing in wood work done cheap, at D. F. TRACY'S.

—Stuttering cured by Bate's Appliances. Send for description to Simpson & Co., Box 2,336, New York.

All kinds of painting done neatly, quickly and cheaply by D. F. TRACY.

—Don't fail to attend Jim Daniel's barbecue at Beaver Dam on the 31st of July.

—Beaver Dam is the place, and Thursday, July 31st is the time—Daniel's barbecue, you know.

—If your molars are not all right Armentad at the Hartford House fix them for you next week.

—Do not fail to call on Dr. W. B. Armentad at the Hartford House next week and have your teeth cleaned up.

—Prof. W. B. Hayward, will speak at the barbecue at Barrett's Ferry, Saturday, August 2nd, 1879, by special invitation of the managers. 27-tf

—The local in our supplement in reference to Capt. Sam. E. Hill's speaking at Paradise should have been credited to the Muhlenberg Echo.

—Our readers, and especially the teachers of the county, will be glad to hear that Judge W. L. Hawkins has revived his Educational column, beginning with next issue.

—The Ohio County Fair Company has changed the time of holding their Fair, from the 7th of October to the 30th of September.

—Any one wishing to buy a buggy would do well to call on the undersigned and examine cuts and prices before purchasing elsewhere,

D. F. TRACY.

—We have such a large amount of matter this week that we were compelled to issue a supplement or leave out much valuable matter and advertisements.

—All persons indebted to the firm of Bean & Vaughn are hereby notified to come forward and settle immediately, or their notes and accounts will be placed in the hands of an officer.

G. J. BEAN.

—The Ohio County Fair will begin September 30, 1879, instead of October 7, as heretofore announced, and will continue five days.

29-tf SAM K. COX, Pres.

—The hotel at Rosine has a new boarder. It arrived last Sunday night on a train on which Dr. N. J. Raines was conductor. The passenger's fare was paid, and Vannort is happy.

—We learn from a reliable farmer that the wheat buyers about Livermore are as thick as grasshoppers in Kansas. They have been giving from 80 to 83 cents per bushel.

—We must apologize for lack of news in local column this week in consequence of our reporter meeting with a very serious accident on his way to dinner yesterday—he was crushed almost to a jelly by the crowd that was rushing to Anderson's Bazaar.

—Those splendid side lace shoes that wear like iron, and worth $2.25 that Anderson's Bazaar sells at $1.85 will soon be gone, and then you'll want a pair when it will be too late. The manufacturer has refused to furnish any more at theoe price.

—Go to Cromwell and have your picture taken. J. F. Hardwick will be there July 30th and remain 12 days. Having had ten years experience in the business, he insures good pictures or asks no pay.

29-tf

—Remus Carter, of Beaver Dam, got a grain of wheat out of a sack of coffee. He planted it and this year got 33 well filled heads from the one grain. It is a fine, large grained wheat, the variety is unknown.

—Married at Reedyville, Butler county, Ky., July 3rd 1879 by Elder J. W. Keown, Mr. Thomas Gott to Miss Belle Whalin. The bride is a daughter of Wm. Whalin, of Reedyville. Miss Tippy Gott and Mr. W. M. Dryer were attendants.

—An impure breath is very unpleasant, and is caused by decayed teeth, old sores of teeth and tarter on the teeth. Call on Dr. W. B. Armentad, at the Hartford House, next week, and have your teeth thoroughly cleaned.

—The school fund so long delayed has come, in part, at last and will be paid out the early part of next week. The February and March draft have been paid—leaving the May draft unpaid. The May draft embraces the following numbers, 21, 52, 61, 70, 39, 58, 80, 84. Those having claims for any of these numbers need not apply now, but when the funds for these districts are received a further notice will be given.

July 22, 1879. A. B. BAIRD, C.S.C.
News please copy.

—We understand that one of our prominent lawyers has quit the profession and gone into the cattle trade. The last heard of him he was busily engaged in learning his calves to swim. He will also teach them some other tricks. He has them on the Fair Grounds in training for the fair.

Sherley & Glover, proprietors of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse, sold 149 lbs hoghead of tobacco last week at the following rates: 15 lbs, cutting leaf at $13 to $19 75.

100 lbs. of leaf at from $5 to $11 55.

21 lbs. of lugs at from $3 75 to $5 45.

18 lbs. trash at from $2 10 to $3 50.

—Mr. J. F. Yager, of this place, received a telegram last Sunday announcing the death of Miss Katie Clore, of Henderson, a sister of Mrs. Yager. About 9 o'clock p. m., Mr. C. J. Yager and sister, Miss Lizzie, left for Henderson to attend the funeral which took place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock.

We have arranged with the Elastic Truss Company, of New York, to supply our customers with the Perfect Fitting Truss. We take measures and order, guaranteeing fit and satisfaction. This Truss cures rapture as well as protects it. We call attention of those suffering from this cause to call and examine it. We have just taken an order.

THOMAS & KIRKLEY.

WHAT does the "New man" mean by calling our candidate R. Primrose Hocker, or R. Peanuts Hocker? Does he mean to be funny? If so we don't see where the fun comes in. Does he mean to intimate that Hocker is dainty in his taste or fastidious in his dress? If so we have failed to notice it. Won't that apply better to the Republican candidate, who seems to be a real Beau Brummel in his style—buttons up his coat and looks sweet at the ladies and says to say, "Ain't you sorry I am a married man?" How would it do to call him J. Whipping-post Meadow? That sounds rather euphonious and half-thinking, and we think would suit the taste of E. Clarence Hubbard, who writes that stuff.

Death of a Well-known Citizen.

Mr. Joseph Vaughn, a well-known citizen of Hartford, died at his home in this place last Thursday. He was a native of Tennessee, but has resided in Hartford for many years. He was probably one of the best mechanics in his line (blacksmithing) that ever lived in the country. He was a good citizen and will be missed by many friends. He leaves a wife and two children, Rev. T. J. Randolph held funeral services at the residence, after which his remains were buried in the Hartford Cemetery.

What Do You Say?

The heated term is upon us, business is dull, health not good, the heat quite oppressive. Let's all bundle up and go to the Grayson Springs. It is one of the most delightful places on earth. Every comfort and amusement here.

—Any one wishing to buy a buggy would do well to call on the undersigned and examine cuts and prices before purchasing elsewhere,

D. F. TRACY.

—We have such a large amount of matter this week that we were compelled to issue a supplement or leave out much valuable matter and advertisements.

—All persons indebted to the firm of Bean & Vaughn are hereby notified to come forward and settle immediately, or their notes and accounts will be placed in the hands of an officer.

G. J. BEAN.

—The Ohio County Fair will begin September 30, 1879, instead of October 7, as heretofore announced, and will continue five days.

29-tf

—Sam K. COX, Pres.

—The hotel at Rosine has a new boarder. It arrived last Sunday night on a train on which Dr. N. J. Raines was conductor. The passenger's fare was paid, and Vannort is happy.

—We learn from a reliable farmer that the wheat buyers about Livermore are as thick as grasshoppers in Kansas. They have been giving from 80 to 83 cents per bushel.

—We must apologize for lack of news in local column this week in consequence of our reporter meeting with a very serious accident on his way to dinner yesterday—he was crushed almost to a jelly by the crowd that was rushing to Anderson's Bazaar.

—Those splendid side lace shoes that wear like iron, and worth $2.25 that Anderson's Bazaar sells at $1.85 will soon be gone, and then you'll want a pair when it will be too late. The manufacturer has refused to furnish any more at theoe price.

29-tf

—Remus Carter, of Beaver Dam, got a grain of wheat out of a sack of coffee. He planted it and this year got 33 well filled heads from the one grain. It is a fine, large grained wheat, the variety is unknown.

—Married at Reedyville, Butler county, Ky., July 3rd 1879 by Elder J. W. Keown, Mr. Thomas Gott to Miss Belle Whalin. The bride is a daughter of Wm. Whalin, of Reedyville. Miss Tippy Gott and Mr. W. M. Dryer were attendants.

—An impure breath is very unpleasant, and is caused by decayed teeth, old sores of teeth and tarter on the teeth. Call on Dr. W. B. Armentad, at the Hartford House, next week, and have your teeth thoroughly cleaned.

29-tf

—We understand that one of our prominent lawyers has quit the profession and gone into the cattle trade. The last heard of him he was busily engaged in learning his calves to swim. He will also teach them some other tricks. He has them on the Fair Grounds in training for the fair.

Sherley & Glover, proprietors of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse, sold 149 lbs hoghead of tobacco last week at the following rates: 15 lbs, cutting leaf at $13 to $19 75.

100 lbs. of leaf at from $5 to $11 55.

21 lbs. of lugs at from $3 75 to $5 45.

18 lbs. trash at from $2 10 to $3 50.

—Mr. J. F. Yager, of this place, received a telegram last Sunday announcing the death of Miss Katie Clore, of Henderson, a sister of Mrs. Yager. About 9 o'clock p. m., Mr. C. J. Yager and sister, Miss Lizzie, left for Henderson to attend the funeral which took place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock.

We have arranged with the Elastic Truss Company, of New York, to supply our customers with the Perfect Fitting Truss.

—The heated term is upon us, business is dull, health not good, the heat quite oppressive. Let's all bundle up and go to the Grayson Springs. It is one of the most delightful places on earth. Every comfort and amusement here.

—Any one wishing to buy a buggy would do well to call on the undersigned and examine cuts and prices before purchasing elsewhere,

D. F. TRACY.

—We understand that one of our prominent lawyers has quit the profession and gone into the cattle trade. The last heard of him he was busily engaged in learning his calves to swim. He will also teach them some other tricks. He has them on the Fair Grounds in training for the fair.

Sherley & Glover, proprietors of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse, sold 149 lbs hoghead of tobacco last week at the following rates: 15 lbs, cutting leaf at $13 to $19 75.

100 lbs. of leaf at from $5 to $11 55.

21 lbs. of lugs at from $3 75 to $5 45.

18 lbs. trash at from $2 10 to $3 50.

—Mr. J. F. Yager, of this place, received a telegram last Sunday announcing the death of Miss Katie Clore, of Henderson, a sister of Mrs. Yager. About 9 o'clock p. m., Mr. C. J. Yager and sister, Miss Lizzie, left for Henderson to attend the funeral which took place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock.

We have arranged with the Elastic Truss Company, of New York, to supply our customers with the Perfect Fitting Truss.

—The heated term is upon us, business is dull, health not good, the heat quite oppressive. Let's all bundle up and go to the Grayson Springs. It is one of the most delightful places on earth. Every comfort and amusement here.

—Any one wishing to buy a buggy would do well to call on the undersigned and examine cuts and prices before purchasing elsewhere,

D. F. TRACY.

—We understand that one of our prominent lawyers has quit the profession and gone into the cattle trade. The last heard of him he was busily engaged in learning his calves to swim. He will also teach them some other tricks. He has them on the Fair Grounds in training for the fair.

Sherley & Glover, proprietors of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse, sold 149 lbs hoghead of tobacco last week at the following rates: 15 lbs, cutting leaf at $13 to $19 75.

100 lbs. of leaf at from $5 to $11 55.

21 lbs. of lugs at from $3 75 to $5 45.

18 lbs. trash at from $2 10 to $3 50.

—Mr. J. F. Yager, of this place, received a telegram last Sunday announcing the death of Miss Katie Clore, of Henderson, a sister of Mrs. Yager. About 9 o'clock p. m., Mr. C. J. Yager and sister, Miss Lizzie, left for Henderson to attend the funeral which took place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock.

We have arranged with the Elastic Truss Company, of New York, to supply our customers with the Perfect Fitting Truss.

—The heated term is upon us, business is dull, health not good, the heat quite oppressive. Let's all bundle up and go to the Grayson Springs. It is one of the most delightful places on earth. Every comfort and amusement here.

—Any one wishing to buy a buggy would do well to call on the undersigned and examine cuts and prices before purchasing elsewhere,

D. F. TRACY.

—We understand that one of our prominent lawyers has quit the profession and gone into the cattle trade. The last heard of him he was busily engaged in learning his calves to swim. He will also teach them some other tricks. He has them on the Fair Grounds in training for the fair.

Sherley & Glover, proprietors of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse, sold 149 lbs hoghead of tobacco last week at the following rates: 15 lbs, cutting leaf at $13 to $19 75.

100 lbs. of leaf at from $5 to $11 55.

21 lbs. of lugs at from $3 75 to $5 45.

18 lbs. trash at from $2 10 to $3 50.

—Mr. J. F. Yager, of this place, received a telegram last Sunday announcing the death of Miss Katie Clore, of Henderson, a sister of Mrs. Yager. About 9 o'clock p. m., Mr. C. J. Yager and sister, Miss Lizzie, left for Henderson to attend the funeral which took place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock.

We have arranged with the Elastic Truss Company, of New York, to supply our customers with the Perfect Fitting Truss.

—The heated term is upon us, business is dull, health not good, the heat quite oppressive. Let's all bundle up and go to the Grayson Springs. It is one of the most delightful places on earth. Every comfort and amusement here.

—Any one wishing to buy a buggy would do well to call on the undersigned and examine cuts and prices before purchasing elsewhere,

D. F. TRACY.

—We understand that one of our prominent lawyers has quit the profession and gone into the cattle trade. The last heard of him he was busily engaged in learning his calves to swim. He will also teach them some other tricks.

DEFERRED MATTER.

THE PROOF MULTIPLES.
The Republican's cut that they are the especial friends of the Union soldiers, and that Democrats are hostile to them grows thinner every time you look at it—in fact it is too thin to longer deceive any one. General Eli H. Murray was a gallant Union soldier, and was promoted for his bravery. He was beaten for the nomination for Governor by Walter Evans, who only snelt powder once in a very short campaign. There are thousands of soldiers in the State well qualified, but the balance of the Republican State ticket is composed of "stay at homes."

In his message, Hayes says the United States Marshals are absolutely necessary for the maintenance of the government, and because of a proviso that no deputies were to be employed at $500 a day to interfere with elections and electioneering for the Radical party, he cut off the appropriation of $900,000 voted to pay them by a veto, and the Marshals have Mr. Hayes to thank for keeping them out of their pay.

COL. J. H. POWELL.

We learn, from what we deem to be a reliable source, that Col. J. H. Powell will be a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in the Henderson district. He is the noble son of a noble sire. Outspoken for right and justice is well versed in the law; is an eloquent and effective advocate, and will make an excellent prosecuting attorney. He has, in addition, had the experience of two terms as county attorney of Henderson county. This position, in a large, wealthy and populous county like Henderson for eight years, is a very great auxiliary in preparing one for a first-class Commonwealth's Attorney. It is not our district, but we have interest enough in the matter to suggest that Col. Powell's qualifications, experience and high moral character should be given due consideration, should he be a candidate. We are very well acquainted in the district and we do not know of any one better qualified, of more experience, or more worthy to fit the shoes of Hon. John W. Lockett than Col. J. H. Powell.

The Elizabethtown tax-payers have resolved to compromise their bonded debt in behalf of the E. & P. R. R. of $75,000 and interest due, amounting to $17,000 by a new ten year bond or bonds to the amount of $45,000. It is understood that the holders of the bonds will accept this, and thus a troublesome litigation will be settled.

The G. W. C. of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, I. O. O. F., has resigned and J. C. Read has been appointed in his stead.

George W. Bain, the gifted temperance orator, has returned from a lecturing tour to California and the West, and is now at home, but will soon be gone again on a similar trip elsewhere.

T. G. Fallon, D. D. G. W. C. T., has recently reorganized the lodge of Good Templars at South Carrollton, with L. N. Strother L. D. and E. M. Coleman V. C. T., and 19 charter members. He also reorganized the lodge at Sacramento.

The Cincinnati Industrial Exposition will be held commencing September 10th and continuing to October 11th, 1879. Steps have been taken to make this one of the most attractive Expositions ever held in the Queen City. In addition to entering articles for exhibition a very large and liberal premium list is offered on certain articles—the list embracing almost every conceivable article of manufacture and agriculture. Send for programme, which can be had by addressing H. McCollum, Secretary. The coming Exposition will be the first ever held in the Grand Permanent building, erected for the purpose by a subscription of $1,000,000. There are over 1,000 gold and silver medals embodied in the premiums offered.

The bad condition of the wheat crop in Europe has caused a spring in prices in New York. Wheat has gone as high as $1.19 there in the last week. If that price could be secured for all the surplus wheat our people have, greenback would be a little more plentiful.

Bowling Green is a lively little city. She is always wide awake to her interests. On the 26th inst. she will vote on the proposition to issue $30,000 worth of city bonds for the purpose of securing the location of the Agricultural and Mechanical college at that point. The proposition will almost certainly carry, and will be another long stride for Bowling Green in her progressive march, for the subscription will almost certainly secure the location of the A. & M. college there.

The Greenbacks of Warren county have nominated Felix G. Cox for the Senate, and D. W. Johnson and Wm. Floyd for the Lower House.

Prof. Coleman, who shot young Smith, a student, has resigned his position in the faculty of Bethel College, Russellville, Ky. Good for the college.

We thought it terrible when we had one woman in our jail for a few days, but the jailer at Glasgow, Ky., has five women lodgers and only four men. They are not the worst people in the world after all.

THE FARMERS' HOME JOURNAL.

We are glad to inform our readers that the above journal is now upon a more safe, substantial basis than ever. Col. L. B. Nall, a native of this county, has secured entire control of it and has now associated with him Mr. Thomas S. Kennedy, who was for many years president of the Kentucky Horticultural Society. It is now one of, if not the very best farmers' paper published in the South or West. No farmer should be without it. Any subscriber of the HERALD can get it through us for an addition of $1.00. In other words we furnish the HERALD and the Farmers' Home Journal in club to one address for the small sum of $2.50. With two such papers almost for the price of one who will longer hesitate to subscribe.

By virtue of an act of Congress approved June 21st, 1879, the biannual examination of invalid pensioners is abolished from that date.

Prof. Towne's arithmetic has been given its walking papers out of the Louisville schools by a vote of 20 to 3. It seems that somebody besides H. A. M. Henderson fails to see perfection in Towne's works. He will have several to wreak vengeance upon him. White's arithmetic, a Cincinnati book, was adopted by the Louisville school board.

A new express company has been formed in Louisville, with Frank Guthrie as president. The company has adopted the name of "Union," and will control the express business in the Louisville and Nashville and Great Southern Railroads and their branches, and began business yesterday. Val. Rose, for many years manager of the Adams Express Company, has been engaged as manager.

COL. J. H. POWELL.
We learn, from what we deem to be a reliable source, that Col. J. H. Powell will be a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in the Henderson district. He is the noble son of a noble sire. Outspoken for right and justice is well versed in the law; is an eloquent and effective advocate, and will make an excellent prosecuting attorney. He has, in addition, had the experience of two terms as county attorney of Henderson county. This position, in a large, wealthy and populous county like Henderson for eight years, is a very great auxiliary in preparing one for a first-class Commonwealth's Attorney. It is not our district, but we have interest enough in the matter to suggest that Col. Powell's qualifications, experience and high moral character should be given due consideration, should he be a candidate. We are very well acquainted in the district and we do not know of any one better qualified, of more experience, or more worthy to fit the shoes of Hon. John W. Lockett than Col. J. H. Powell.

Alfred Gamble, one of the Breathitt county outlaws and murderers, has been sent to the penitentiary for life.

Our friend, R. Y. Bush, of Hawesville, has taken editorial charge of the Hawesville Plaindealer. He will, no doubt, make it lively and interesting to the readers as he is a man of fine ability.

WHAT IS IT.

We have a monstrosity in our office, brought us by John Stevens, who lives next Wilson's Mills, this county. It was dropped last spring by a ewe. Its covering looks like the hair of a woolly dog; its ears are under its jaw; it had no eyes discernible; its nose protrudes about 2 inches, over where its mouth should be, and it had a kind of hole for a mouth. The top of its head, nose and front part of the body resembles a dog, is about 21 feet long. It had four legs with feet like sheep, and its tail looks a little sheepish. It is one of the strange freaks of nature.

Memor.

Little Ula, daughter of J. R. and Vashti Pike, was born Jan. 20th, and died July 12th, 1878. A bright little star which twinkled but for a night here, and then set to shine anew in the kingdom of God. M. A. N.

Obituary.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors. His friends, in the meantime, have been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife, the deceased and the responding deacons, relatives and neighbors.

Elizabeth S. Johnson, daughter of Judithon and Mary Condit, was born in Ohio county, Ky., March the 30th, 1846, and moved with her parents to Arkansas, Jackson county, in the spring of 1855, where she died under the same roof. She became a widow in 1863, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to A. J. Johnson, in 1870, whom she had the pleasure to live with but one brief year. Then he died in the same family, called, died December 2d, 1878. One of the church's deacons, a member of the colored lightfoot family, has been taken to a more genial clime, to an "Elden of rest," to join the beloved wife